Associate Tenants Profile

Harriet is a barrister and Jersey advocate practising in tax law and all aspects of Jersey law. She advises on all aspects of direct and indirect taxation (including matters with an offshore element), as well as on Jersey law. She litigates in the English courts and tribunals as well as in Jersey in relation to both purely tax matters, as well as matters with a tax element. Harriet is a former editor of the Personal Tax Planning Review and the Offshore and International Tax Review.
